

19.1. Prepositions and adverbs:

at - ~~over~~ – into - till – without – between - down – behind

Hugo is jumping ....over.... the wall.
 Don't go ..... his room.
 The boys are running ..... the hill.
 Please be here ..... six o'clock.
 Wait .....next week.
 They are hiding ..... a tree.
 They can do their work ..... any help.
 The Atlantic Ocean lies ..... Europe and America.

19.2. Delete the bad alternative:

Two men are sleeping / working in a public park. One of them finds / digs a hole. The other immediately eats / fills it up. This happens / stops a number / zero of times. A rattlesnake / passer-by observes this happening. He asks / answers them why they are making / doing that. The men shoot at / explain it to him. "There are normally thousands / three of us." "And what does the third guy / dog do?" the passer-by wants to know / tell them. "He puts the treasures / plants in the holes, but today he is ill."

19.3. Opposites:

arrival blunt catch clever defend destroy devil doctor dry end ~~empty~~ evening exit fast find giant hell landing lose moon near never night obey peace pull quiet remember sweet

full	empty
now
noisy
to throw
to search
to forget
to push
morning
war
entrance
departure
patient
sour
heaven
stupid

wet
sharp
always to win
to build
to command
to attack
day
sun
angel
take off
dwarf
far
slow
begin	