

1.1. LOOK or SEE?

LOOK – LOOK – LOOK – LOOKING – LOOKING – LOOKING – LOOKS – SEE – SEE – SEE – SEEN

She wants tosee..... us. (visit)

Let me you to the door. (accompany)

I can't him as a doctor. (imagine)

Don't so sad. (make a face)

We haven'tour new neighbour yet. (meet)

This lettervery important. (seems to be)

We must start again. (search)

We're still for a house. (want)

Oh darling, you're so nice tonight.

..... at this! It's unbelievable! I've never anything like this.

If you through the telescope you can that Alpha Centauri consists of two stars.

Look. There's a hair in my soup.
It's blonde. Can you see it?

1.2. Put questions:

I want an umbrella. (you?) ... What do you want?

It's raining.

I'm from Paris. (you?)

Sue is going to London. (she?)

I can come in two hours. (you?)

The sun looks like a white moon.

He stays at home.

There is a train in five minutes.

A pound of apples is 80 p. (This is rather expensive.)

John is doing his homework. (He isn't sleeping.)

She lives in Mendocino. (not in L.A.)

Mendocino is in California.

Sue will come tomorrow. (not today)