

33.1. FOUR KINDS OF NOUNS:

Select for the list below: Albert, July, book, month, team, freedom, army, Monday, power, Mexico, dog, pack, swarm, boredom, baby, dozen, season, happiness, watch, time, Venus

PROPER NOUN	COMMON NOUN	COLLECTIVE NOUN	ABSTRACT NOUN
It's a noun that refers to a particular person or thing. It has a capital letter. You can't usually put "the" or "a" with proper nouns.	It names a kind of person or thing. It is called "common" because the name is common to all persons or things of the same kind.	It describes a group or collection of people or things.	Abstract nouns describe things that cannot actually be seen, heard, smelt, felt or tasted.
Albert, July,	book, month,	team,	freedom,

33.2. FULL STOP or QUESTION MARK?

Where is the hotel ?

He asked how much it would cost

Is it expensive

Will I like the food

What an awful room

It's a large room, isn't it

How long shall I stay

May I take a picture

33.3. SOME or ANY?

Fill in some, any, or their compound.

~~something~~ – some – any – something – somebody – anything – anybody – anywhere – anything – anything – anything

Doctor: "Good morning. What's the matter?"

Kevin: "There's ...something... wrong with my arm."

Doctor: "Did serious happen?"

Kevin: "No. I fell over"

Doctor: "And why?"

Kevin: "Because I couldn't find my glasses"

And without my glasses I can't see"

Doctor: "Have you got to put on your arm?"

Kevin: "No, I don't have to put on it.

Have you got medicine for me?"

Doctor: "Yes, here's cream. Put it on your arm three times a day.

Is there here to take you home?"

Kevin: "No, but I just have to phone home and can come for me."

