

8.1. Write sentences with "neither ... nor":

She's not tall and she is not short. ... She's neither tall nor short.

Jim doesn't speak French and Sue doesn't speak French. ...Neither Jim nor Sue speaks French.

John is not married and his brother is not married.

My mother does not smoke and my father does not smoke.

Jenny is not fair and she is not dark.

Alice is not at home and she is not in her office.

Wendy is not fat, but she not slim.

I do not speak Spanish and I do not speak Italian.

Backwood has not got a bank or a post office.

Paul isn't a good driver and Ben isn't a good driver.

8.2. A matter of life and death:

You are at the North Pole. Your tractor and radio transmitter have broken down. You cannot repair them. You have to walk 100 kilometres to the nearest camp. You have enough warm clothing and boots. You also have the following things on the tractor, but you can't carry them all. What will you take? Prepare your pack.

Choose from the list by underlining the important things:

- bottle of red wine
- camera
- cell phone
- chewing gum
- cigarettes
- compass
- cookery book
- deckchair
- dictionary
- empty bird cage
- gas cooker
- laptop
- large tent
- matches
- portable TV set

- radio receiver
- saucepan
- signal flares
- sleeping bag
- small tent
- some paperbacks
- sun glasses
- Swiss army knife
- teddy bear
- tin opener
- tinned fruit
- tinned meat
- two gas cartridges
- umbrella
- waste paper basket

Hey! Your skis! Have you forgotten them?