

Choose the better alternative:

There are probably more than a-hundred / 10 million different species of animal.

Mammals are the only animals with four legs / fur or hair. All mammals drink beer / milk from their mothers when they are sleepy / young. Bats, whales and monkeys are mammals – but you are not! / and so are you!

Birds are the only animals with feathers / heads. They are brought by the stork / born from eggs. Birds have strong wings, but some birds, like the ostrich and the eagle / penguin, cannot fly.

Most reptiles live on ice / dry land. Their skin is covered with tough, dry scales. Lizards, rabbits / snakes, crocodiles and turtles are all reptiles.

Amphibians are born in the cabbage / water, but when they die / grow up, they can live on land. Frogs, toads and newts are all amphibians.

Fish live in snow / water. Their bodies are covered in scales and they have life jackets / fins to help them swim. Fish breathe with snorkels / through gills.

Arthropods do not have bones / have boots. Instead they have a hard skin or helmet / shell on the outside of their body. Arthropods have at least three pairs of / hundred legs. Insects / lions are the most common arthropods.

Molluscs have a soft gun / body, with a hard shell around it. Molluscs have no legs, but many have a kind of 'foot' to help them move about / fly around. An octopus is a mollusc with its shell inside its briefcase / body.