

The song tells a folk tale of a cowboy who has a vision of red-eyed, steel-hooved cattle thundering across the sky, being chased by the spirits of damned cowboys. One warns him that if he does not change his ways, he will be doomed to join them, forever "trying to catch the Devil's herd across these endless skies". The story resembles the northern European mythic Wild Hunt.

An ..... went riding out one dark and windy day

Upon a ridge he rested as he went along .....

When all ..... a mighty herd of red eyed cows he saw

A-plowing through the ragged ..... and up the cloudy draw.

Their brands were still on fire and their hooves were .....

Their horns were black and shiny and their hot breath he .....

A bolt of fear went through him as they thundered ..... the sky

For he saw the riders coming hard and he heard their mournful .....

Yippie yi Ohhhhh

Yippie yi yaaaaay

Ghost Riders in the sky

..... gaunt, their eyes were blurred, their shirts all soaked with sweat

..... to catch that herd, but he ain't caught 'em yet

'Cause they've got to ride ..... on that range up in the sky

On horses snorting fire

As they ride on hear their cry

As the riders passed on by him he heard .....

..... to save your soul from Hell a-riding on our range

Then cowboy ..... your ways today or with us you will ride

Trying to catch the Devil's herd, across these .....
