Great talkers are little doers, aren't they?

Connect by lines:

Nothing ventured, nothing gained.
One man's meat is another man's poison.
The other man's grass is always greener.
Don't look a gift horse in the mouth.
Every cloud has a silver lining.
It's no use crying over spilt milk.
Out of the frying pan, into the fire.
Fools rush in where angels fear to tread.
You can lead a horse to water but you cannot make it drink.
A stitch in time saves nine.
Where there's a will there's a way.
A friend in need is a friend indeed.
Great talkers are little doers.
All that glitters is not gold.
Look at the bright side.
Experience is the best teacher.
No news is good news.
Fire is a good servant but a bad master.
Strike while the iron is hot.
Prevention is better than cure.
Once bitten twice shy.

Don't question good luck.
You have to try or you won't get anything.
There's always something good in bad times.
People often don't like the same things.
Don't be too sad after a small accident.
You always think that other people's lives are better than yours.
You can give a person a chance, but you can't make him or her take it.
Act early and you can save a lot of trouble.
Stupid people do things that other people never do.
From one problem into another.
A friend who helps when one is in trouble is a real friend.
The best way to learn a job is to do it.
When a person really wants to do something, he will find a way of doing it.
Be optimistic.
Do not be deceived by things or offers that appear to be attractive.
Those people who talk a lot and are always teaching others usually do not do much work.
Seize a good opportunity as quickly as possible.
If a person has been tricked once he will more be careful and alert the next time.
It is better to be careful beforehand than to try to solve a problem after it has arisen.
When there is no news, it is likely that everything is all right.
Manmade tool or device will serve man well only when it is controlled and used wisely.

It's no use crying over spilt milk.
